DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2 and 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Laws et al (U.S. Pat. No. 4,212,895) or Law et al (U.S. Pat. No. 4,218,491) in view of applicants' admissions for the reasons set forth in the last Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments filed 3/11/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the rejection misinterprets the teachings in the instant specification. The specification clearly teaches that those in the prior art commonly modify the various amounts of alpha acids, beta acids and oils that are added to beers for their art recognized purposes. Page 1 state that the composition of hop extracts can vary widely. Reference is made to Hildebrand patent, on page 2, whereby individual extracts are produced and then recombined to make a final product. Reference, on page 3, is made to the Sharpe patent, whereby fractions are created and the recombined "according to the particular need of the brewing company." It is these teachings that are relied upon in the instant rejection.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
